Entries Due by August 3, 2022

Mail Entries to Entry Clerk: Sybil Cummins, 861 County Route 62, Sandy Creek, NY 13145

Rules:

1. Entries must remain on the grounds from check in time until release time
2. ADGA rules will govern.
3. The Superintendents reserve the right to substitute judges if necessary
4. Base age for computing animals age is August 11, 2019
5. The Judges decision on animal placement and any disqualifications is final
6. Health: all goats must be vet checked on the grounds prior to unloading from transport vehicle or entering the barns. They must have been checked by a veterinarian within 30 days of the show date and have a health certificate from that veterinarian. N.Y.S. Health Standards apply. Out of state exhibitors need entry permits. Veterinarian decisions are final.
7. Rabies Vaccine required
8. Sick animals will be evaluated by the superintendent who controls the right to contact a NYS Veterinarian. The veterinarian has the right to have specified animal removed from the barn and the grounds and will not be allowed to participate in the show should the animals be removed before the show.
9. Stalls will be assigned to exhibitors when they arrive. Tack stalls will be available pending the number of entries.
10. Ribbons will be given at the judge's decision based on the Danish system. Awards for the Best and Reserve of Show will be presented at the conclusion of the fair at the awards ceremony.
11. Anyone causing a disturbance or trying to intimidate a judge will be asked to leave and their entry fee will be forfeited. 12. A valid pedigree must be presented for each goat that is entered in a purebred class
13. Exhibitors must furnish feeders or water buckets and their own feed.
14. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to bring their own cleaning supplies. Pens/Stalls should remain clean and appropriate for the viewing of fair goers at all times.
15. A goat can only be shown exclusively in one showmanship class by one exhibitor. This does not include the Master Showman class as exhibitors do not enter in this class.
16. Stalls must be cleaned at the end of the Fair before the exhibitors is allowed to depart. A superintendent must approve that the stall is cleaned to the best of its ability and then the exhibitor and animals may leave. Failure to comply with this rule will result in forfeiting premiums.
17. ALL ANIMALS WILL BE RELEASED SUNDAY AUGUST 21, 2022 AT 5PM.
